

Terras do Crato

brand	Terras do Crato 2011
producer	Gonçalo Aires de Sá da Bandeira
wine type	Regional red wine
region	Alentejo
varieties	Trincadeira, Aragonez, Merlot, Alicante Bouschet and Cabernet Sauvignon.
vineyard size	24 ha
soil type	Transitional, with a strong granitic composition.
winemaking	Manual harvest, followed by selection in the table of choice and entry into the fermentation tanks by gravity. Fermentation in stainless steel containers.
aging	Eight months in stainless steel containers and four months in bottle.
expected longevity	3 to 4 years.
summary analysis
alcohol	14 %
total acidity	4,9 g/L
pH	3,76
volatile acidity	0,55 g/L
so ₂ free	90 mg/L
so ₂ total	25 mg/L
organoleptic characteristics	Ruby color. Fruity and intense aroma. Balanced palate, soft tannins and good persistence.
oenologist	Rui Reguinga and Marcos Vieira package (box 6x750ml)	Weight: 8.4 Kg, Height: 162mm; Length: 320mm, Width: 230mm.
palletization (europallet 1200x800)	108 boxes; Weight: 930 Kg; Height: 1.61 m

- Commended Medal at the 2010 Decanter World Wine Awards
- Awarded at the 2008 Decanter World Wine Awards
- Silver Medal at the 2008 Mundus Vini Contest
- Silver Medal at 4th Florida Intl Wine Challenge (Terras do Crato 2005)